Daylight Savings Time

starts this weekend—spring ahead!

Dear Parents & Guardians,

Welcome back everyone! Though our vacation seemed kind of long, it's really nice to start back on a 3-day school week!

Can you believe Daylight Savings Time starts this weekend? Yes, starting on Sunday morning, we are moving our clocks ahead. It seems early this year so we better get ready!

Parents—please note that our staff has an In-Service Day next Friday, March 15th. We understand the timing of having an In-Service Day so soon after a vacation, but the district needs to get some professional planning time in.

Thank you very much for your flexibility.

We are pleased to announce that our budget passed! Thank you for your support. The Orchard voting precinct is always so supportive of our school budget! Also, we are super excited for the election of one of our Orchard parents, Brian Minier. He won a seat on the SBSB School Board! He is our first Orchard School Board member in a very long time.

Have a great (1-hour shorter) weekend; take some time to read with your child. ~Mark Trifilio
